

Lincolnshire Youth Mission Ltd / RoadHoG Data Protection

Lincolnshire Youth Mission Ltd and the roadHoG Project Management Team are both committed to protecting all information that we handle about people we support and work with, and to respecting people's rights around how their information is handled. We want to communicate with everyone in a way which has their consent, and which is in line with UK law on data protection.

As a result of a change in UK law, we now need your consent if we are to continue sending you the roadHoG Newsletter.

Please type in the contact details in the boxes below:

Your Name :

Your Email Address:

"I consent to the LYM / roadHoG holding this information for the purpose of keeping me informed about news, events, activities and services relating to the RoadHoG Project."

Please note:

If you do not grant consent by filling out the above details and returning the completed page - we will not be able to use your personal data and so, under the new GDPR legislation we will not be able to keep sending you the RoadHoG Newsletter or be able to let you know about forthcoming events except in certain limited situations, such as where required to do so by law or to protect members of the public from serious harm.

You can find out more about how we use your data from our "Privacy Notice" which is available from our website www.roadhogbus.org.uk

You can withdraw or change your consent at any time by contacting Kevin Smithbone the LYM appointed Data Controller by email to:

- roadhogbus@gmail.com

Please note that all processing of your personal data will cease once you have withdrawn consent, other than where this is required by law, but this will not affect any personal data that has already been processed prior to this point.

To continue receiving the roadHoG newsletter, please send this completed page by email to:

- roadhogbus@gmail.com

Thank you!
